

2022 APA-WI Conference What's Next? Strategies for Planning in a World of Change

The 2022 APA-WI Annual Conference is an event you don't want to miss! It's packed full of great presentations, seminars and workshops that will benefit every Wisconsin planner.

In addition to great speakers, workshops will focus on helping planners excel in their careers and better understand the planning landscape. Among the topics: planning through advocacy as well as how to work with the media for maximum positive exposure.

Attendees will also have opportunities to tour of Downtown Green Bay redevelopment and visit the Titledown District which has spurred economic development on the west side of Green Bay.

So mark your calendars and reserve your room for the 2022 APA-WI Annual Conference May 24 – 26. You can now book rooms with the Hyatt Regency – Green Bay.

If you are interested in presenting at the annual conference, you can still submit a presentation proposal. Forms are available here with by the March 25 submission deadline to Deb Nemeth at nemethplanning@gmail.com. Sponsorships are also available! Visit our website to learn more.

APA-WI Board Member Spotlight: Jason Gilman

APA-WI would like to introduce our Board President, Jason Gilman, AICP, RLA. As President, Jason is responsible for coordinating Chapter programs and activities, serving on the Executive Committee, overseeing and assigning duties to special committees along with many other activities. The APA-WI President is the spokesperson for our association and works diligently to make sure our members are receiving the proper resources and information.

Jason Gilman
APA-WI Board President

In addition to being the President of APA-WI, Gilman works as a Planning Group Leader for ISG, a nationally recognized, multi-disciplinary architecture, engineering, environmental and planning firm. He has over 33 years of public and private sector planning experience improving cities in the Midwest.

Gilman has a Bachelor of Science from the University of Wisconsin – Madison in Landscape Architecture and has other planning related coursework. He has served as an adjunct professor for State and Local Politics at University of Wisconsin – La Crosse and Winona State University and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Planners, APA and the Urban Land Institute.

Thanks for lending your time and talents to APA-WI!

FAICP Class of 2022

The APA-WI board is proud to announce one of our members will be inducted into the American Institute of Certified Planners Class of 2022 College of Fellows! Join us in honoring Carolyn Esswein, AICP, CNU-A, a professor at the School of Architecture and Urban Planning at the University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee. With her teaching and professional experiences, she drives change in how diverse populations engage in planning decisions and outcomes to transform neighborhoods and cities throughout Wisconsin.

Carolyn's work, contribution of ideas, and generosity is just one example of how planners make our communities better, stronger and more resilient. Thank you.
